Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, The construction industry of South Dakota is one of our state's leading industries and is the key to our future economic development; and,

WHEREAS, The Associated General Contractors of South Dakota, representing over 350 member firms and over 10,000 South Dakota employees, has been nationally recognized for its leadership as a construction trade association; and,

WHEREAS, The construction industry and the AGC of South Dakota have been leaders for progress and achievement throughout the history of the great state of South Dakota; and

WHEREAS, The construction industry and the AGC of South Dakota, by emphasizing the award of projects to the lowest competitive bid performed by private contractors, epitomize the strength of the American free enterprise system; and,

WHEREAS, The construction industry and the AGC of South Dakota, through the motto of "Skill, Integrity and Responsibility," have always produced high quality work for a fair price; and,

WHEREAS, The construction industry and the AGC of South Dakota have created a strong infrastructure that has enabled South Dakotans to prosper:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the state of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim May 20 through 26, 1990, as

CONSTRUCTION AWARENESS WEEK

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fourteenth Day of May, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Ninety

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
